

BRONWYN KODISANG

Candidate Attorney
bronwyn@craffordlaw.com

Bronwyn completed her Bachelor of Social Sciences (BSS) degree in 2016 at Rhodes University (RU). She continued to further her studies at Rhodes University and attained her Bachelor of Laws (LLB) degree in 2018.

Bronwyn's career started at King Price Insurance, where she worked as a legal assistant in the legal department. She then joined Crafford Attorneys in 2019 and has since acquired experience in civil litigation, family law, criminal related-matters and labour-related disputes.

Bronwyn looks forward to strengthening her critical-thinking skills and expanding her experience and knowledge across different sectors in the legal field.

Bronwyn has since started exploring her interests in conveyancing matters and looks forward to the new challenge.

Her interests include reading novels, watching periodical series and criminal investigations as well as attending wine-tastings and farmers market days.
